

CONDITIONS OF COMPETITION Tricky Women 2009, Vienna March 5th – 9th , 2009

Tricky Women is the first and only festival of animated film that is dedicated exclusively to animation by women. Since 2007 it has been held annually in Vienna each March.

- The festival offers an international competition of animated short films realised by female artists and produced in 2007 or 2008. Each filmmaker, producer or distributor may submit as many films as they like. Each film submitted must be accompanied by an entry form and sent on a separate tape or reel. No films entered in prior Tricky Women Festivals shall be admitted.
- The deadline for applications for the preliminary selection is 14 November 2008.
- Awards:
 - Tricky Women Award of the City of Vienna worth 3,650 Euro
 - 3-month scholarship in the artist-in-residence programme of quartier21/MQ
 - Synchro Film & Video Material Prize worth 1,500 Euro
 - Hubert Sielecki Award worth 500 Euro (for Austrian animation)
 - Audience AwardAwards and prize monies will go to the directresses of the films.
- For every film to be presented at the preliminary selection a clearly marked DVD (VHS tape) must be sent in together with an application form. The DVD must CLEARLY show the name and the address of the directress as well as the running time of the production. Each DVD shall contain one work only.
- Applicants should enclose an English version of any non-English text, dialogue or commentary contained in the film.
- Films to be screened at the festival must be in 35 mm, 16 mm or Beta SP PAL.
- One application form must be filled in completely (2 pages!) for every competition entry. Applicants must enclose documentation material (at least two film stills as jpeg 300dpi – CD-Rom welcome), biographical information on the directress and details of her filmmaking history. The selection committee shall refuse any entries that fail to comply with these conditions.
- The preliminary selection committee decides on the details of competition programming.
- By submitting a film, the makers consent to include it in the competition programme or the other programmes.
- The directress/contact person will be informed of the preliminary selection committee's decision before the start of the festival.
- The screening copy must arrive no later than 2 February 2009 at the festival office (Tricky Women, quartier21/MQ, Museumsplatz 1, 1070 Vienna, Austria).
- The costs of transport as well as customs duties, etc. are the sole responsibility of the sender. The festival organisation will cover the costs of returning the screening copies.
- DVD or VHS videos for selection will not be returned and will become part of the archive of the festival.
- Film/video copies from abroad must bear the label "temporary import – for cultural purposes only – no trade value" on the package. Dispatches from non-EU states must contain a pro-forma invoice (amounting to a maximum of 25 euro). In case of the copy being lost or damaged only the material value can be refunded. Compensation claims must be made within 10 days after the film has been returned.
- During the festival the productions are insured for their print value. The insurance is valid from the time of postal receipt of the film until it is sent back.
- Applicants grant the festival the right to show on television and/or internet broadcaster parts of their production to a maximum of 3 minutes.
- Applicants acknowledge and accept these conditions.
